Faithful Over a Few Things George O. Jr. McCalep

This book is based on three assumptions: (1) the pastor is the chief catalyst in church growth; (2) there is but so much time in a day, therefore, what the pastor can do is limited; (3) if the church and her leadership do a few things well, God will grow His church. This book is not culturally specific. Nor is it designed, focused, or oriented specifically toward any particular denomination. The only specific is church growth.
