“You’re probably wondering what I’m doing here. I thought this would be easier than writing in a diary that my mom could infiltrate, the way she had with that little cherry leather one I’d kept during eighth grade where I had divulged the spring fling kissing and stuff that happened between Zeus and me. That was when she’d given me the stern virgin talk. I vowed never to disclose information like that again in such a careless manner. But I do like to write – and this way, blogging on the internet, is much better. No one important will read it (no offense) and I can do it anywhere, like at work at the travel agency, when there’s no one in the office. Cyberspace is actually the greatest hiding place of them all, isn’t it?” Dannika Elinopoulous is about to get married, but before the nuptials, she thinks it would be prudent to get more experience in the sex department. Sure, she and her fiancé have all sorts of crazy role-play sex including the toxic making love kind, but the twenty-three-year-old travel agent wonders how she can insure happiness with her soul mate, the love of her life, Zeus Zepkos. When she dreams about Madonna, it sparks an idea to parallel relationships in the pop-star’s life. While Zeus is away on a business trip in Japan, Dannika blogs about her quest for the holy grail of sex knowledge. She reveals much about her life and the big Greek wedding they’ve planned while plotting to seduce six different potential partners. 1. The record producer 2. The personal trainer 3. The lesbian 4. The basketball player 5. The artist 6. The actor Will she make it down the aisle or will her plan back-fire before she can say I do? Follow Dannika’s madcap adventure as she pursues bliss as a sexual dynamo down her own version of the yellow brick road.
