Yesterday's Eyes (Urban Books) Catherine Flowers

Ida has never been close to her mother, Mavis, but she is a little too close to Mavis's husband, the less-than-godly preacher of First Presbyterian Church. When Ida gives birth to a baby boy, she claims the preacher is the baby's father.

After Ida is convicted of negligent homicide and goes to prison, Mavis finds herself faced with the task of raising Ida's six-year-old daughter, Tia. Mavis barely knows her grandchild, and must find a way to form a bond while she's still struggling with her husband's betrayal.

Tia has already spent time with an abusive foster parent, and now must learn to survive with her emotionally distant grandmother.

Catherine Flowers brings readers the powerful story of three generations of women who must come to terms with the past and learn how to forgive one another if there is any hope of healing.

Christopher Jorge:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Yesterday's Eyes (Urban Books) can make you really feel more interested to read.
