Superwoman is dead. At least she is in my household. In today's fast-paced, technology-driven world, we're pushed to the limit to be more, do more, and have more—at any cost. We are wanna-be modern day superheroes, silently struggling to live up to an unattainable role. Through it all, we continue to smile (at least in public) while simultaneously drowning in our endless to-do-lists, feeling perpetually exhausted and defeated. It's time for a change. I'll give you a glimpse into my world - the ups, the downs, and the discoveries along the way. Today is the perfect time to start rediscovering your dreams, reclaiming your time, and trading in "perfect" for "making progress." Don't let another day go by wondering what could have been if you had only had the courage to take charge and start living your life on purpose. Time goes by quickly, so why not start living it YOUR way! Grab your copy now of My Cape Is at the Cleaners, and come share in the challenges, celebrate the everyday triumphs, and start choosing happy over perfect.
