My Little Book of Hope Judy Macnamee

Within this book you will find six diverse and unique teens sharing their hearts with you about how they felt different, but more importantly, how they have come to embrace these differences. These are REAL kids, with REAL struggles just like you. They've been able to see past the labels, environments, the structure of society and the archaic framework of our educational system. These stories, combined with the valuable insight of ADHD coach and educator Judy MacNamee, will guide, inspire and empower students everywhere to reach new levels of success.
