Baseball fiction and fantasy at it's most unusual. Imagine finding out that you have an incurable disease. Then imagine that the medicine you are given takes you way beyond "normal." To you a speeding object can appear slowed down. A 100 mph baseball looks like a 5 mph basketball! You become better at things requiring hand-eye coordination than anyone has ever been! What would you do upon discovering this incredible ability? Cole Anderson decides to try out for Major League Baseball. How does he handle the incredible riches and fame that comes to him? Who doesn't like a story where the little guy that should be doomed, gets all the breaks? Follow the short exciting career of this baseball superstar, as he goes into the record books practically sitting in a wheelchair!
